MESSAGE FROM THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN PREMIER, DON DUNSTAN.

20th July, 1973.

It is with great pleasure that I welcome members of International Toastmistresses in Australia to your Adelaide seminar this weekend.

International Toastmistress Clubs in the way they promote self-awareness, leadership skills and international contacts among women, provide a most valuable community service.

Since your organisation's formation in 1938, women have taken a far more prominent place in public, professional and business life, and International Toastmistresses have fostered this. But there is still a long way to go before true equality of the sexes is achieved and I am sure your clubs will continue to help pave the way.

I wish you a most successful conference, and to your visitors an enjoyable stay in South Australia.

PREMIER.
